

Dateline: June 11th, 2011
Castaic Lagoon

24 tubers came out to compete in the 2nd and final event of the 2011 Friends of Castaic Lake Float tube bass derby series. The weather was cool and foggy most of the day with a light drizzle falling in the morning. . 12 noon was weigh in time and all participants and staff were then treated to a great chili dog cookout hosted by Pete and Julie Carrisosa.

Taking first on this day was Daniel Palmer with a limit totaling 13.48lbs. Daniel was consistent throughout the day and even culled twice. Great job Daniel!

The rest of the top five is as follows:

2nd-Brandon Baker-11.47 lbs.

3rd-Phillip Emory-9.42 lbs

4th-Andy Caspar-8.89 lbs

5th-Chad Emory-8.03 lbs

Taking big fish for the day was Bryan Howell with a toad of 7.95 lbs!

Our prizes packages were donated by a variety of great sponsors. These included gift certificates from Taylor Tackle, JT Tackle, Dobyons Rods, Noah at Sport Chalet Porter Ranch, and Wayne at Pro Tackle Solutions. Providing us with tackle giveaways were Team Davies Tackle Company, Roboworm, and Don Iovino Products. A special thanks also goes out to Roger Larocque of Peregrine 250, who donated bottles of his great product as prize packages. Roger also shot a great video of the days proceedings-great job as always Roger!

A huge thanks to our staff boaters, including Roger Larocque, Jim Oge, Marty Lorentzen, Victor Nardiello, Ken Boyce, Dan Haller, Tony Franks and son, and Grant Powell. Thanks also to our great shore staff, including Marcia Thompson, Karl Kratzer, Dave Baltes, Mike Iljin, and our computer guru, Roger Carufel. Let's get ready to rumble, we are thinking about a night event for next June! See ya'll next spring!